

Group Coach Mentoring & Supervision - 10 hours

International Coach Federation accredited group coach supervision and mentoring in virtual meetings, maximum 10 people

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

£180.00

Ask a question about this product

Description

Bring your coaching-related issues to our virtual meeting space.

Discuss your coaching challenges in a confidential environment, led by a Senior Coach

Mentoring and supervision develops self-awareness; improves coaching skills and networks with like-minded professionals

- 10 people maximum class size
- 10 masterclasses per year, monthly (except for August and December)
- Less than £20 per session

Accreditation

Accredited by the International Coach Federation for core coaching competencies.

After you register , you will receive an email confirmation of date,time and dial-in details.

The Forton Group also offers in-house coach supervision for corporate clients; contact us at info [AT] thefortongroup [DOT] com for more information

This programme is suitable for

Coaches looking for group mentoring and supervision -

- HR professionals responsible for developing internal coaching communities
- Organisations looking to introduce coach-mentoring and supervision
- People who lead, supervise or manage people and teams

This module covers

We explore in small groups -

- Coaching skills and competencies
- Steps or tools in the coaching models you use
- Coaching and business ethics and issues
- Your personal or professional coaching challenges

- Other professional development issues related to coaching