

Leadership Bookclub: annual membership

Powerful leadership learning and current thinking on coaching - author interviews in the Leadership Book Club

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

£100.00

Ask a question about this product

Description

Explore the latest thinking on leadership and coaching with our 'book of the month': its impact on the way we coach and its contribution to the field of leadership. Meet authors and talk to them about their books.

All Forton Group Master Classes, including the Leadership Book Club, are accredited by the International Coach Federation for Continuing Coaching Education

What you get...

6 x 1 hour live author interviews, plus free special events and learning resources

The inclusive annual fee gives you:

- Log in details to six live events* per year
- Exclusive access to the current recordings and full author interviews
- Group coaching and discussions to apply the learning back in your world of leadership and coaching
- Free membership of the Leadership Library
- Email reminders before each event

What people say...

"Really helpful teleclasses - they build my coaching knowledge and skills in a supportive environment. It gives me a fresh perspective and keeps me learning."

"I'm very glad I signed up. It's been a great privilege..."

"I really enjoyed the interview with James Autry (Servant Leader). it's not often we get to hear authors talk about their books or their ideas. It feels far more 'real' coming from them directly."

"These teleclasses are a valuable addition to my training. I would thoroughly recommend them in support of developing as a coach."

The next bookclub meeting

Monday 29th March, 5pm UK time

Edward Marshall

Carried by the Spirit: Our Hearts Sing. Discerning Meaning during the COVID-19 Pandemic.